AN "OUT OF LINE" SCHEME.

The St. Louis papers parade a plan, said to be original with Mr. J. D. Lucas, which is guaranteed to refine the American thoroughbred field. It is really the old idea of making the winner of occasional selling races the property of the association furnishing the purse and the sending of such winners by the owning association after being branded, to outlaway. Their progeny is also, by the Lucas plan, to be placed under the outlaw ban. The scheme will not do. The law of possession is a fundamental every man has the right to do what he will with his own. The pinch of the present might force the man to do what he should not do, and punish the main body of the turf by sending what it should have in the present and the future outside its limits. Ownership and the right to use what one legally owns and legally operates, where and when one chooses, is an American fundamentalism. It would be far more intelligent and less costly and clumsy for reigning turf bodies—with consent—to appoint a board of censors, who could select horses for banishment into a second, not an "outlaw" class. The "outlaw" term is un-American and offensive. Such boards or committees could use judgment as to short pedigrees and individual quality and save the main body of the turf much, that such a miscellaneous plan as that proposed by Mr. Lucas would, in its miscellaneous and bribing unwieldiness overlook—and afterward regret.

HOWLAND A COLT OF QUALITY.

John Madden's Howland, who won his first race at Little Rock Wednesday, is said to be as highly tried a colt as was Ornament. Had the local rooms been in full blast Howland's win would have cost them a large sum. The colt is a superb individual by Hindoo out of the Australian mare Ricochet, by Musket, now 14 years old. Joe Ullman owns his brother, the 3-year-old Savarin, who wasn't much as a 2-year-old but was highly tried and is as good looking an individual as there is in Eastern training quarters.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Racing officials err in the proper enrolling of records far more often than newspaper men. The American Sporting Manual displays, among other records, those of the Memphis track. So does the current Memphis stake book. The latter gives Booze and David the 3/4 mile track record of 1:16 but omits Stride-away's 1:16, made April 22, 1889. The Memphis book includes Berclair's 1:55 1/2 for 1 1/2 miles. The actual record is that of Buck Massie and Queen Bess—1:55 1/2. The same book gives the 1/2 mile record as 2:42 by Joe Cotton in the Derby of 1885. The real time was 2:42 1/2, as recorded by the American Sporting Manual.

The Californian work watchers are in love with Magnet, who now shows no sign of leg trouble. They think that with reasonable work on a grateful track, the Honig horse can run a mile in 1:38 or so. He might, if he doesn't have to stand the grief that comes with actual racing action. Under such a pinch, 1:40 will hang up the fast son of St. Blaise—Magnetic.

The more or less correct Cincinnati Enquirer credits W. J. Speirs with having Major Domo in his present racing string, together with some of his two-year-olds. Perhaps the turf is to have the novelty of sire son and daughter racing together. Perhaps, also, the information is, as usual with the Enquirer, incorrect.

The Missouri breeders' racing bill, which abolishes poolrooms and gives race tracks ninety days' action each year, hangs fire. There is an outside angle to the measure. Gov. Stephens will probably sign it. It does not take effect until ninety days after his signature is secured.
